Generation M Design Award 2017

TOKYO MODEST FASHION SHOW

Aim and Vision

Generation M Design Award aims to encourage young fashion designers to showcase and introduce their modest fashion designs to the fashion world. Generation M Design Award is more than just a competition. It is an indicator of quality, perfection in design and readiness to make a name in the fashion industry. The award is recognized worldwide and has gotten the attention of design oriented companies, professionals and players in the market. Winning this award will be a mark of excellence & an important milestone for young designers and certainly a stepping stone in advancing their careers.

The Competition Brief

The first of its kind in Japan, Generation M Design Award aims to encourage young fashion designers to expand their reach in the modest fashion industry globally.

The theme for this year's competition is Style & Modesty: where designers are required to design stylish and innovative ways to express modesty in the women fashion.

The competition is open to all students of fashion schools which are appointed by the Halal Expo Japan 2017 Organizing Committee. If you have not much experience or you're currently studying a fashion related course but you believe that you have a flair for fashion and you have something to show to the modest fashion industry, we'd love to see your ideas.

Finalists will be required to make their garments and showcase them on our runway show on 21st November 2017 Tuesday, where the overall winner will be selected and crowned, Generation M Fashion Designer of the year 2017.
